

“We entered a cabin. Stretched in one dark corner, scarcely visible from the smoke and rags that covered them, were three children huddled together, eyes sunk, voice gone, and evidently in the last state of actual starvation...”

from William Bennett, Narrative of a Recent Journey of Six Weeks in Ireland, 1847

IRELAND'S GREAT HUNGER

AN GORTA MÓR: THE QUINNIPIAC UNIVERSITY COLLECTION

MAY 21, 2010 – SEPTEMBER 3, 2010

CONSULATE GENERAL OF IRELAND

345 Park Avenue, 17th Floor | New York, NY 10154 | 212.319.2555

Visit www.thegreathunger.org for times and information.

Rowan Gillespie, The Victim, 1997, Bronze